
homework weekend 25

1. In Islam, when can a man and a woman form a family?

2. Why are students living in a dorm not a “family”?

3. Mention three values that all Muslim families need to show.

4. In a family, the father died in a car accident. Now the mother lives with her children. Can this unit be called a family? Explain your answer based on the lesson.

5. Circle the letter T if the sentence is correct, or F if the sentence is false.

In a Muslim family, children learn to love and respect their parents. T F

A Muslim family learns family values from watching the TV. T F

In a Muslim family, the brother does not care about his sister. T F

In a Muslim family, we are not happy to see the grandparents. T F

One of the values of a Muslim family is to educate their children about Islam. T F

